

Todd Alexander

Pastor Todd Alexander recently retired after 35+ years of full-time ministry. He has served as a Youth Pastor, Senior Pastor, and TN District Executive Secretary/Treasurer. His messages are marked with Biblical truths, humor, and a challenge to “do better” in our pursuit of following Jesus.

Prior to ministry, Todd served his country for 12 years in the United States Marine Corps. Now after retirement, he serves his community as a Gallatin City Councilman. He has been married to his high school sweetheart Sherri for 46 years. They have 2 children and 5 amazing grandchildren. He retired in Gallatin, TN and attends House of Grace Assembly of God.

Travers L. Sloan

Travers L. Sloan is a preacher, teacher, author, and servant leader passionate about helping people grow in their relationships with God and others. He has served as an Executive Pastor, Youth Pastor, and Youth Director, and currently ministers at Watson Grove Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee, where he teaches and equips believers for ministry.

With extensive experience in nonprofit executive leadership and business development, Travers is also the CEO and Co-Founder of TrustWorks Solutions. He is the author of two books focused on Christ-centered relationships and healthy romance. His heart is to communicate biblical truth with authenticity, clarity, and compassion. Travers and his wife, Molita, have been married for 23 years and have identical twin daughters who are currently attending college.

Andrew Kirkpatrick

Andrew Kirkpatrick is the Lead Pastor of House of Grace in Gallatin, Tennessee. A pastor's kid from West Tennessee, Andrew attended ministry school before stepping into full-time ministry as a children's pastor in Bartlett, where he met his wife, Kallie. Andrew and Kallie have served together in ministry for several years, including leading children's and youth ministries in the Nashville area before joining House of Grace as youth pastors. In March 2026, they were installed as Lead Pastors, where they now serve with a passion for seeing people encounter Jesus and grow in their faith.

Andrew and Kallie have one daughter, Sevi. Outside of ministry, you'll usually find Andrew cheering on the Tennessee Volunteers.

Hosted by Lighthouse Church

Nancy Beckim
Community Life Pastor

Bob Keich
Lead Pastor