

Ty Crowder

Ty is the Campus Pastor of Living Free Church Campus in Franklin, KY. With over 16 years of ministry experience in roles such as worship, children’s, youth, young adult, and executive pastor, Ty brings a deep understanding of church leadership and next-generation ministry. Passionate about worship, discipleship, outreach, and leadership development, he is committed to equipping others to walk confidently in their God-given calling. Known for his humility and authenticity, Ty leads with a heart rooted in God’s presence. A devoted husband and father of three boys, he enjoys family time, reading, playing guitar, and embracing stillness—anchored in his life verse, Psalm 46:10: “Be still, and know that I am God.”

Jenny Lipscomb

Jenny Lipscomb is an energetic educator from Portland, Tennessee, entering her 18th year teaching career and technical life skills to high school students. Named Teacher of the Year in 2024, she and her husband Brandon co-own Lipscomb Creative, a digital marketing studio, and enjoy traveling, strong coffee, and life with their two pups. Jenny and Brandon are active members of The Belonging Co. in Nashville, where she serves in the Single Moms ministry. She’s spoken to thousands of students and hundreds of adults, inspiring them to love Jesus in real, relevant ways that cross cultures and generations.

Chris Moore

Chris Moore serves as the Presbyter of the North Nashville District for the Tennessee Assemblies of God and is the Lead Pastor of Gateway Church in Ashland City, Tennessee. Since 2012, he and his wife Leslie have been serving there with a passion for community outreach, discipleship, and Spirit-empowered ministry. Under his leadership, the church has launched impactful initiatives like the “Vision of HOPE for CHEATHAM,” providing practical support to local schools and families. As a regional leader, Chris offers pastoral care and oversight to fellow ministers, championing the mission of the Assemblies of God to be a Spirit-filled movement bringing hope and transformation through the gospel. He and Leslie have three beautiful children, Mia, Jeremiah and Gianna.
